Couture Cuts

If it's classic elegance you are looking for in trinkets you wear to work, make way for lightweight, delicate diamond jewellery. For treasured, eternal pieces that add a dash of style to your overall appearance as you attack work with a vengeance everyday. Celebrate your self-worth and pamper yourself, because you deserve it. Read on for some tips to help you decide what you'd like to buy...

1. Choose stylishly crafted jewellery that you can wear from 9 to 5 everyday. Something that is unique and appealing. Leave opulence for festive occasions
2. Less is more. Strike a balance while co-ordinating your trinkets. If the ear rings are slightly big, opt for a smaller pendant and a modest bracelet.
3. Go for simple carat cuts. Bracelets that tend to clatter, distract and draw unnecessary attention in the work place.
4. Buy jewellery in consonance with your body frame to highlight your assets, like a graceful neck. On a petite built, V shaped neckpieces lend height, and slender bracelets compliment.
5. If you are broad shouldered, try wearing smaller and more feminine accessories to enhance and flatter your mystique
6. Studs work charmingly well as opposed to dangling ear rings. They are non obtrusive and lend a quiet, polished style to your appearance
7. Geometric cuts in trinkets work the best for round faces. Softer contours are becoming for rectangular faces.
8. An oval face is the most versatile as it is in perfect sync with all kinds of experimental carat contours
9. Choose a design that you can wear both with Indian wear and Western formals. This gives you best value for money owing to increased wearability
10. Invest in a piece of jewellery that has timeless style. Something that makes you feel extra special when you wear it, and make an invaluable addition to your collection
